Guidance:

On the first day, begin with a few minutes where you read the Construct. Continue on to the first question in the lab, and write your thoughts in a notebook or journal. Address the additional questions in the lab at a pace that works for you. Reflect on any insight gained or growth in progress as you close out the Construct.

A Different Perspective

Psalm 119:105 says “Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light onto my path.”

It is convenient to walk by sight and allow our flesh to determine our attitude during the uncomfortable seasons of our lives. However, this is when we need to activate our faith and stand on the Word of God. Speak His Word and know that His Word is truth. Meditate on this for a bit, and let it sink into your spirit.

As you study and speak (pray and declare) God’s Word, your faith grows in Him and you begin to believe His Word for yourself. Scripture tells us that faith comes by hearing, hearing by the Word of God. So you see that it is pivotal to learn the Word of God, because it builds upon the measure of faith dealt to each person (Romans 12:3). As you lean into what you believe, and do God’s Word, the more your mind can be renewed. The Bible tells us that God will not be mocked. As you give yourself to Him, He gives himself to you.

This is the point where the Holy Spirit gives you revelation knowledge. When this occurs, it shifts your perspective to God’s viewpoint. You get a glimpse into the holistic picture of His intentions, and can grasp in your soul that all things will work together for the good of those who trust Him and are called to His purpose (Romans 8:28).

This ultimately opens your perspective to a different point of view that is in line with the Word of God. It will take faith to believe and receive this renewed spirit, in order that you may gain a fresh perspective.

Prayer

Dear Father, You are a good God who provides for your children. Thank you for Your Word that teaches us Your ways. I pray to study Your Word and give my heart wholeheartedly to You. Help me to see truth and move in faith without hesitation. Renew my spirit, and bless my heart and mind with a fresh perspective. In Jesus Name, I pray. Amen.

Practical Application / Lab

Consider the scripture:

Ecclesiastes 3:1 “There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:...”

Spend some time over the next few days to meditate on what this scripture means to you personally. Reflect on the things currently happening in your life, including both challenges and successes resulting from recent decisions. Write out your thoughts.

Pray to God to enlighten you with wisdom and truths. This is easier if you are familiar with the Word of God because it helps you to recognize God’s ways and the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, select some scriptures to study that relate to where you are - in your thought life, emotions, and physical relations. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you.

Capture any revelation knowledge that you believe He shares with you. Notice any shift in your perspective as you continue to learn and apply God’s Word, and reflect on your life in relation to Ecclesiastes 3:1.
